

Bookings for Online Sessions

A convenient and confidential service for those too busy to attend in individual counselling in person.

On-line sessions will be confirmed once you have submitted the questionnaire and payment has been made. Times can be booked with either Annie or Paul or as a joint consultation. All sessions are confidential and anonymous and require credit card payment prior to session.

Application and Payment

Please read our Terms and Conditions prior to filling out the questionnaire. We will respond to your questionnaire and confirm that you are eligible for on-line counselling. Once confirmed, you will be required to pay on-line after which the session will be conducted.

Fee for sessions will be negotiated through email and will need to be paid online prior to session.

Further enquiries can be made to Annie or Paul by email or by phone (03) 9596 7898
